

Confused And Stupid

This was one of the many times I took a scammer's Yahoo ID and plugged it into Debbie's contact list and tried chatting them up like they were Debbie's lost love...Look how fast this moron assumes the role. This idiot is a loan scammer and still tries to play that role which he quickly abandons and gives a lame excuse about. My emails are in blue, his/hers are in black, my comments in red. Happy reading!

The funny thing is when I do this, most of the time I use a made up name that is nothing like their profile ID. I call him Thomas, my lost love, when clearly his name is James Philip or Philip James. I have a feeling that this idiot will repent of his evil ways and still try to talk to Debbie.
