

Corruption Junction

This was one of the two lawyers I spoke with in one of my favorite baits – Hi Ho, Sliver! / And Justice For All...If you have read those baits, you would know that it started with Sliverline Marvin, a poor, stupid, young girl from the Ivory Coast – who has millions. She was trying to get me to pay bank fees of $8000.00 to release her funds I told her that the banker was obviously a crook and I was going to report him. She panicked and gave me a lawyer to contact, who was also a crook. This is the new lawyer (2nd). The original bait is not yet fully documented because it is hundreds of emails (most Sliverline whining and complaining), but the second part, And Justice For All... is great. Sliverline dies and wills me her money and I have to deal with the doctor and a crooked Chief Justice.

ESQ BARRISTER JERRY AHMED.

I don't remember telling you how old I was, you moron. I will talk to whoever I want, any way I want to, especially if they are a no-good, rotten criminal. All I am trying to do is help a poor, stupid, defenseless girl get her inheritance, and it seems like every African I deal with is a common criminal. I knew Africa was bad, but not that bad. You disgust me, and I will see that you are disbarred, tarred and feathered, and beaten with a rubber hose. You are pathetic.

Thomas

Immediately after this response to this idiot – I emailed Sliverline and told her I was sick of dealing with corrupt people and that I didn't want to help her any more. She kicked her whining into overdrive – “I wanted to see her die...”, “Just pay the money, I will get it all back...”, “I didn't love her...”, etc. etc. She even started trying to bargain with me – it went from $8000 to $4000 to $500 for foodstuff and medicine, with her whining and complaining every step of the way. I really got sick of it so here was my last email to her...

Silverline;

How many times do I have to tell you that I am not sending money to your corrupt government/bank? Are you stupid? You do know how to read, right? I will put in plainly for you – I will not spend one penny on this. I will not send you any money whatsoever. If you die, it is not my fault. If you are suffering, it is not my fault. I told you a while ago to find another person to help you because I was not sending you any money, and you kept insisting on emailing me. Try getting off your lazy, whining ass and go make some money for a change instead nagging and complaining every day. You're in a refugee camp, right? I know how you can make some money – get down on your knees and let some of those smelly, disgusting refugees gag you with their manhood. That has to be worth $1.50 per job; $2.00 if you let them spooge in your eye. At the least, it will shut you up for a little while. To raise the $4,000.00 you need, you would only have to go down on approximately 8,000 filthy, rotten refugees, like yourself. I think you could accomplish this in a day or two, plus, you probably wouldn't be that hungry! See, kill two birds with one stone...

You never know, it might be a new career for you.

Let me know how that works out for you,

Love, Thomas

It's pretty funny that after this email, a few weeks later, Sliverline dies in a car wreck and the Doctor informs me that I inherit her fortune...
