

Guilty As Charged

Here comes one more of the many fake army guys from Dating72 – I swear that website is infested with them. I seriously believe that 80% of the profiles on that website are fake (including mine). This always brings back my point as to why do these stupid Nigerians pretend to be US Soldiers when they can't speak English that well? Do they think that we won't notice? Or do they think that their English is that good? I seriously wonder if these are ever successful. I have met a few Nigerians who could speak decent English, but not from this website...
