

Here Me Speak Igbo

This was another fool from Dating72.com. At one point, this idiot thinks I am a fellow “guyman” and tries to get me to help him. Notice how he brags and the cars and house when he thinks I am on to his scam, but yet he admits that he gets nothing from scams when he thinks I am a fellow scammer. The first chat session of this was lost – it was short and basically five minutes after I talked to “her”, I decided she was too young and told “her” I was not interested.
