

Helen Of Toy

This bait was early in my career before I became a seasoned professional. It didn't last too long - basically after I told her I contacted the real Royal Bank of Scotland from the website, instead of her contacts, it was over. Ah, live and learn...

Hello Dearest,

I am more than happy to read your mail today. How are you today, hope fine.

Mine is a little bit cool today over here in Dakar Senegal. My dear In this refugee we are only allowed to go out two times in a week. It's just like one staying in the prison and I hope by God's grace I will come out from here soon.

I don't have any relatives now whom I can go to, all my relatives ran away in the middle of the war. The only person I have now is (REV TIMOTHY SAMUEL) who is the pastor of the (Living Christian Church) here in the refugee. He has been very nice to me since I came here but I am not living with him. Rather, I am leaving in the women's hostel because the refugees have two hostels, one for men and the other for women.

The Pastors Tel number is (+221-761392760) if you call, tell him that you want to speak with me. He will send for me in the hostel. As a refugee here, I don't have any right or privilege to anything, be it money or whatever, because it is against the law of this country.

I want to go back to my studies because I only attended my first year before the tragic incident led to my being in this situation now.

Please listen to this, I have my late father's deposit certificate and death certificate here with me, which I will send to you later, because when he was alive, he deposited some amount of money in a leading bank in Europe, which he used my name as the next of kin. The amount in question is $9.7M (Nine Million seven Hundred Thousand Dollars).

So I will like you to help me transfer this money to your account and from it you can send some money for me to get my traveling documents and air ticket to come over to meet with you.

I kept this secret to people in the refugee here. The only person that knows about it is the Reverend because he is like a father to me. So in the light of above, I will like you to keep it to yourself and don't tell it to anyone for I am afraid of losing my life and the money if people get to know about it.

Remember I am giving you all this information due to the trust I deposited on you. I like honest and understanding people, truthful and a man of vision, truth and hardworking. Meanwhile, I will like you to call me like I said I have a lot to tell you. Have a nice day and think about me.

Awaiting to hear from you soonest.

Yours in love,

Helen

Hi Helen;

Sounds like you're having a rough time over there in the camp. That's a shame. I know I will be able to help you because I have an old family friend who is a lawyer and practices international law. He should be familiar with how to get you out of that situation as well as retrieving your money from the bank. I don't think he would even charge us for helping, unless he incurred any expenses along the way. It might be something to look into. I'll tell you more about myself later, because I'm at work right now.

Talk to you later,

Greg

(I threaten her with contacting a lawyer - doesn't really faze her...)

He gave them the Account # and Depositor's Name and they said it did not exist at their bank. I don't know what's going on here, but I don't like it. Is this some kind of joke or something?

Greg

(These are real contacts from the bank's website)

I haven't heard from you - what's the status? Did you straighten this mess out?

Greg

Dear disgusting, rotten, thief;

Where are you? Did you finally realize that I knew about your scam and wasn't falling for it? Try getting a job and earning some money instead of being a low-life thief. Do you wonder why the whole world hates you? Everything bad in this world comes from Africa - crime, disease, poverty, AIDS, war - all from your stinking continent! I really do pity you...

Greg

I screwed up - I played my trump card too soon. She knew the jig was up...
