Compliment of the season. I appreciate your concern and your willingness so far for assisting me, the most important thing i need from you right now is your honesty and trustworthiness. I choose you in this transaction, based on my present status here in Dakar as a refugee under asylum. According to the financial governing laws of this country, people under refugees are not allow to participate into monetary transaction or operate personal bank account with large sums international or locally.

I want you to understand more about my situation here in the camp, I am e-mailing you from the office of the Rev.Father who is the pastor at the church in the refugee camp, I have explained to him a little about my life though not everything, i told the Rev.Father about my communication with you and he permitted me to access my e-mail in his office computer twice a day, here in the refugee camp, meanwhile life is just not easy since I don't have any body here to take care of me.You can reach me through the Rev.father phone number (+221) 77- 270-54-40.

I don't have access to further my education, no access to clean water,no access to good food here in the refugee camp, life has not been easy for me. I'm only surviving through the aid of the Rev. Father who is the pastor at the church in the camp.

Moreover, I went into serious discussion with the holding bank where this money is deposited into, for them to advise me on what to do in order to have access to my late father's fund, the legal department of the bank told me that in a situations like mine, that the best solution is by soliciting for assistance of a reliable foreigner who can assist me claim, receive the fund and invest it on my behalf as I wish.

I then decided to contact you, hoping that with your advanced knowledge we can be able to work together, so that if all things works out for us, we can go into life partnership if you wish . Though it took me time to make up my mind to contact you and offered you this proposal of mine of which my whole life depends on.

I will furnish you with all the vital documents covering the deposited fund under the holding bank, only if you can promise me that you are not going to betray me or sit on my inheritance after it might have got into your account, Please understand that there is no illegality involvement in this transaction, you are going to deal with the holding bank directly.I will send to you the contact of this bank where the Funds is deposited, for you to establish immediate contact with them for the transfer.

Finally, i am suggesting that if we can go into life partnership as time goes on which means that the proceedings from the investment in your country shall be shared equally between the both of us because i do not know much about international business and i am putting my entire inheritance of my late father to your care because i want you to be in total control of my funds as soon as the fund arrives in your country.

Please i will like you to send to me your full data such as .

- (1) your Home address-----
- (2) your full name-----

My Dearest,

In the beginning, i actually was having fears of betrayal and how to get you convinced to believe me when the Bank advice me to look for a foreign partner from any country of my choice since i am a refugee at the moment and the law of the country does not permit me to part-take in any international transaction until i secure all the necessary papers. I was also warned to be careful with the kind of person i connect through Internet because most of the people are fake and can destroy my future if i don't pray for God to guide me to select real person but surprisingly your mail response came up and you sound as if you were reading my mind at the moment.

I really don't know how we can convince each other so that trust can be built between us, i am willing to be loyal to you because it takes one time to know someone. I have gone through your mail content and discovered that you Worth knowing more, i was really touched by your mail and i am assuring you that you will never regret of meeting me. I shall remain loyal to you and allow you direct me on what to do with this fund when i come over to you because of your experience and broad knowledge while i continue my education over there first.

I also spoke with the rev father today again about you and he encouraged me to make sure that i give you details of the holding bank and about my late father's deposit since my father used my name as his next of kin, i have also informed the bank that you will contact them on my behalf so they accepted and said until they hear from you. i have your full details..

I read every one of your long and tedious emails. I told you in the first email that I wasn't interested in the money - the truth is I have taken a vow of poverty for my religion. It is not easy growing up as a devout Rastafarian - the kids picked on me every day. The worst was the not showering for a whole year - I'm sure you are familiar with that. Those pesky flies can be a real nuisance. How do you keep the flies off you? If we were to be together, would you become a Rastafarian with me? Of course it means you would have to chop your penis off. And you must shave you mother's back - sorry, those are the rules! Let me know what you think?

Thomas

Never heard from her again - I wonder why?
