

Leggs Up

This Nigerian fool has contacted me a half a dozen times. As soon as I start laughing at him or cursing at him in one of his fake profiles, he contacts me again with the new fake profile. The last time I talked to him under his last profile, he was begging me for money to save his mother's life from OSA (Obstructive Sleep Apnea). I laughed and told him that was not a fatal disease and he told me it was a typo and that he meant she had an ulcer. So, as you can see, not dealing with a rocket scientist here.
