I asked you to mail me the actual Loan Application, not send me a bunch of random fields in an email. Are you sure you are not one of those filthy stupid Nigerians?

Greg Wilson

We are not here to play games if you want this loan which is 100% guaranteed then you must fill out the application and send it back so you loan can be processed urgently

Yours Sincerely,
Regards,
Mr.Mankinze Smith.

Okay, I accept that you are not here to play games – I just wanted to make sure no stupid africans were going to be involved here. How can you stand working in that filthy country, surrounded by all of the smelly, foolish people? I would be afraid to walk outside with all of those criminals running around. It's kind of curious how your company set up a branch office in one of the poorest and dumbest countries on earth to dispense their loans from. Weird, huh?

Anywho, I will look over this loan form and get back to you.

Greg

He never responded back and when I sent him the filled out form the email came back undelivered – his email address was shut down. This one was a trooper though – how many times could I insult his country and he just took it? He was waiting to get some money from before he had his laugh, I bet...

Oh, well...next!
