

Milk Does A Scammer Good

This Nigerian boy had some of the worst English I have encountered while talking to scammers. He must be incredibly stupid to think he could pass himself off as an American. This bait could have been longer, but I hate talking to some of these fools who can't understand you – it's frustrating for us baiters too...lol. I also like this fools name – Sgt. Milk Smith (could he have stolen it from Smith's Milk?).
