

My Confession

In a previous bait with this fool, I finally told him that I knew he was a scammer – followed was dozens of chats sessions with insults. I made fun of Africans, Muslims, his mother, etc. I finally got tired of talking to this idiot. Out of the blue, he contacts me again. In the first chat session with me, he tells me he is French and lives in Paris, France. I trace his email (Morocco) and ask him about it and he admits he lied – scammer! I continued to talk to him until he begged me for money (immigration) and then I let loose. He finally gave up on me after weeks of insults, until now...lol. Glutton for punishment!
