

O Henry

Henry is a complete moron. West African scammers like to use American or English names in their scams because they feel that we will trust them more. The downfall of this is when you are a complete and utter moron, and you can't seem to spell the name you have chosen. Or even worse, when you use a different name altogether...

From FederalMinister Minister of finance

DirectorMr Williams udoka

I told you if you forgot how to spell your own name to look on your first email. Henry is spelled like this, not Hehry. Now, it seems, you have forgotten what your name actually is. Who the fuck is Mr. Williams Udoka??? I remember that name from somewhere else...

Are you confused? Are you a complete idiot? Contact me when you figure out what your name is and how to spell it correctly, ass-bandit.

Thomas

Williams Udoka is a name from another scambait. I don't know if this is the same idiot or if it is a common scammer name to use. Either way, this moron is way too stupid to live.
