

Oil For The Masses

Another Contract Scam where they need you to be their partner because it is illegal for Nigerian Companies to move money out of Nigeria. Yes, he expects people to believe this. This bait was pretty complicated because I spoke with him, then the lawyer, then the CBN Governor, all for no reason as far as I can see. Look at the role of the lawyer – what purpose was that? Just to make it look real, I guess.

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

FROM: Mr. Arjong Chua.

Central Bank of Nigeria

Lagos, Nigeria

Everytown outside west Africa.

Dear Sir/Madam:

I have been requested by the Nigerian National Petroleum Company to contact you for assistance in resolving a matter. The Nigerian National Petroleum Company has recently concluded a large number of contracts for oil exploration in the sub-Sahara region. The contracts have immediately produced moneys equaling US$40,000,000. The Nigerian National Petroleum Company is desirous of oil exploration in other parts of the world, however, because of certain regulations of the Nigerian Government, it is unable to move these funds to another region.

Your assistance is requested as a non-Nigerian citizen to assist the Nigerian National Petroleum Company, and also the Central Bank of Nigeria, in moving these funds out of Nigeria. If the funds can be transferred to your name, in your designated bank account, then you can forward the funds as directed by the Nigerian National Petroleum Company. In exchange for your accommodating services, the Nigerian National Petroleum Company would agree to allow you to retain 10%, or US$4 million of this amount.

If it will be possible for you to assist us, we would be most grateful. We suggest that you meet with us in person in Lagos we can proceed also if that will not be possible?, and that during your visit I introduce you to the representatives of the Nigerian National Petroleum Company, as well as with certain officials of the Central Bank of Nigeria.

Note that this transaction is 100% safe and guaranteed since the law under which our committee was set up, has empowered us to disburse all the funds. We shall commence the transfer of the funds immediately we receive the following information by Tel/Fax::

- 1) Your company name and full address
- 2) Your bank's name, telephone and fax number
- 3) Your account number and name of would be beneficiary

The above information will enable us put up letters of claim and job description to the respective ministries for the issuance of the mandatory fund release approval/recommendations. This way, your company will be recognized and accepted as the beneficiary of the contract entitlements before the final remittance to your nominated account, by the Central Bank of Nigeria, being paying bank. Time is of the essence in this matter; very quickly the Nigerian Government will realize that the Central Bank is maintaining this amount on deposit, and attempt to levy certain depository taxes on it.

Yours truly,

Mr. Arjong Chua.

Mr Arjong.

I asked if you were just using me to pay your bills because you are poor and destitute and all you said was that "you understand what I am saying". What the hell does that mean??? Does that mean I am right?

Debbie

Hello,
if you think that you will not be making this payment you have to let me know ontime because you are the one dealying this transaction,just let me know your position in this business.

Are you stupid, you freaking moron? I ask you a question three times already and you are too stupid and ignorant to even dignify it with an answer? Are you educated, because I am starting to believe that you are not. Answer the question, moron, before we proceed any further.

Debbie

Hello,

well it must interest you that i am not your play mate and i am very serious in what i am doing so mind the way you address me okay?anyway what was your question?you see we really have to act fast before we ran out of time okay?

You know what, I am sick of this. You are incredibly stupid and totally oblivious to anything I say or write to you. I no longer wish to proceed with this transaction because you are an idiot, so please go find someone else. I ask you something three times and not only are you too fucking inconsiderate to answer it, you have the gall to ask me what the question even was. This tells me that you either ignore my emails or that you are the dumbest person on Earth. Which is it? Either way, I don't want to proceed any longer, so would you please jump off a cliff and die.

Debbie

can you recall your question?

Go fuck yourself – I said I was done with you. I don't need the money that bad to put up with the incompetence of a babbling fool. I understand that you are just a poor, pathetic, indigent fool who is looking for someone to pay his bills, and I am not interested in you anymore. Please cut your own throat.

Debbie

I may still get some responses from this idiot but for all intensive purposes, this bait is done. I was sick of his constant begging and emails. I left off half of the emails that he sent me because they weren't important to the bait (shit like "How are you today" and "How is work?").
