

Pollard Springs Eternal

All of these idiots that I meet on the Dating Site – I guess someone decided that 45 or 46 is the perfect age to scam people in Romance – you are not too old for younger women and not too young for old women. This idiot Larry has a picture of a twenty-some year old man in his profile. I have done this with many of scammers where they insist “age is just a number” – just blow them off and say they are too old. I lose a few of these, but some come back with some very funny results. This chat transcript is not one long chat – it is a compilation of about 5 different days – when I copied it over, it didn't copy the page breaks...
