Calvin

Why are you asking if I can read I should be asking you if you can read because i sent you message for you to chose how you will like to receive your Card you are asking if I can read, Well the funds you are about to receive is from Nigeria Compensation Commission which all Scam victims are to partake on this reward, so your email address has been selected to receive the funds, so kindly let me know how you will like to receive it.

Waiting to hear from you today.

Thanks

Mathew Ralph

I asked if you could read because I asked you what this is all about and you did not explain yourself. I have never been scammed by anyone before. I think you must have the wrong person.

Hello Hobbs
It doesn't really mean you have to part of or have been scammed before you receive this amount of money, just know that you were selected to receive this.

kindly acknowledge the receipt of this message to enable me let you know what to do.
Thanks
Mathew

So you are telling me that because your country is full of scammers, that you pick email addresses at random to give free money to? Is that what you are saying? You give away free money to people who have never been scammed before?

kindly acknowledge the receipt of this message to enable me let you know what to do.
Thanks
Mathew

Wow, that is good to know! I knew that all West Africans were poor stupid criminals, but I was unaware of their generosity. That is great that they are trying to make up for being degenerate human beings by giving free money to random email addresses. Why do I have to do to collect my share?

Question.....Who is good

AnswerGod is good

Once you have made payment please send me the MTCN

Thanks

Mathew

I have an account with FEDEX – I will just put the delivery charges on my account.

Thanks,

Calvin Hobbs

Hobbs you do not understand the delivery fee cannot be deducted from the atm account you must pay this fee most urgent by western union as is no deductions are allowed

Thanks

Mathew

Well, if you could read and understand English then you would see that I said I would put the charges on my FEDEX Account, not deduct them from the atm. Give me the Shipment # for the ATM Card and I will contact FEDEX and have the fee placed on my account.

Thank you,

Calvin Hobbs

Hobbs you have to listen to our directives and fee cannot be placed on your account for some reasons. You must send the fee by western union so you don't lose your funds

Thanks

Mathew

What do you mean I can't place a delivery charge from FEDEX on my account? Are you stupid? That is exactly what having an account is for you moron. What kind of nonsense is this? You ask me to choose my shipper, so I choose the one I have an account with and you tell me I can't use it for "some reasons"? Could I speak with someone in your office that is intelligent if you can find someone? Even a janitor would be a step up from you.

I am very disappointed in how you handle this business – I would like to deal with someone else.

Calvin Hobbs

He either knew that the jig was up or he didn't know how to proceed without asking me for the delivery charges. I received no more responses from this purple helmet popper...
