This idiot contacted me from Yahoo Personals – the scammer’s must hate the fact that Yahoo is eliminating their Personals section and going to partner with Match.com instead. Scammers love Yahoo Personals because they can register for free for a weeklong trial. This scambait goes back to my query of why a West African scammer would pose as someone who lives in the same town as me or a city somewhat close? Do they think I won’t ask them about it? I don’t even get the chance here because this moron forgets where she is from.

Hello - this is Greg from Personals - write me back.

Greg

Thanks for the message Greg, Its nice getting to know you but there are things i really need to express.life is good and at the same time there are still some bad things happening in life too.But i believe the bad people have spoil the names of the good ones. so that in life now, we try to be sure of the person we are dating.whether he/she truly loves us or Just there to play us.I have gone through so much and all i need is a man that is trustworthy and reliable.I hope you possess the qualities i need from a man.All i need is true love because that is what i want to give.thanks for Getting in touch...Tell me more about yourself

Don’t bother reading my reply...The first three paragraphs were written by a scammer to me which I use to reply to romance scammers because they don’t read your emails anyways...At least to the point where they ask for money. I re-copied those 3 paragraphs over and over to make my email look long. She never noticed...

Thank you so much for getting back in touch with me as it actually made my day!!!, you sound like all i want, you are my perfect match . I am really going to put a lot of effort into writing this letter to you in hopes it will provide you with a good understanding of who I am, what I am all about, and what has made me the person I am today. The reason I am going to write a letter rather than just send a message is because I am serious about wanting to establish a quality friendship with you, and because of the fact I rarely contact anyone on here, so when I do you can be rest assured I am serious about my intentions.I will just want you to know that i do graduated from University of Florida and i do graduated with a BSC...

Am looking for a woman that will be able to listen to me , communicate her feelings to me , make me laugh, hold and comfort me in need,stand by my side, respect me, passionate lover in every way, support me in every way, love me and only me, make me smile, protect me when needed, romantic time to time ,constantly reactive, and treat me right.... I know you will think what is a pretty lady like me doing on here .. Yes the reason I came on to the internet to find the special person who deserves all the love and passion that makes up my heart and soul is because I do not have the time to meet others out in a public setting, and the fact I feel you can learn so much about someone through letters, as a person has to take there time and think about the words they want to express, so it allows you to gain a better understanding of someone than you would probably otherwise .

Dear The very reason I am interested in establishing a friendship with you is because I feel I have a lot to offer you in the way of a friendship and I know I have a lot to share with you that will be of interest to you and even some things that will surprise you. I am very much a woman of substance and I am very unique in today's society because I live my life through my spirituality and through the word of God and because I have such a strong understanding of what I feel my role in life is suppose to be. I am a woman of integrity and my word is my honor!. I have very high standards for myself and my life is all about providing love, peace and happiness to others.For you to get a better understanding of me picture a waterfall in your mind and instead of all the water overflowing it is all the love and passion I have in my heart to give to others who are deserving, as the love and passion has an endless flow coming out of my heart.

I choose to write and I like to give them my very best even if it is in a long letter such as this. I know the type of person who I want to build a friendship with so I am willing to put the time and effort in my messages to show that to you.

Greg

Remember this for the chat sessions...

I am Originally from Rittman.. OH,I live alone in the house i inherited from my dead parent,they both died in a car accident 4yrs ago,I will be coming back to state soonest as soon as i get my leaving certificate. I believe that men needs to be treated with respect and as a equal partner in a relationship, but all I seem to find is the ones that does not know how to respond to that or is untrusting to it. I feel like u should treat somebody with respect and like they are a person not a peice of meat or whatever. I am the type of person who wants somebody to feel wanted not just as a trophy. I am a very affectionate person and I love to cuddle, I like to show somebody how I feel not just telling them. I love to be close to somebody whether it is in the bed on the couch or wherever. I want somebody to want me for me not something or somebody I am not. I guess my dreams would be is to be happy and have a family my goals in life I want to go into business for my self oneday but that will be a while from now. I guess I want to work on my love life and be happy first. I have always wanted a child of my own and to have a family , but I guess when the time is right it will happen. I like to play sports just as much as I do watching them. Most of all i like to spend time with who I am with, and cuddle up and watch a movie.I like the outdoors, but I don't care about hunting or fishing, well I will fish with an un-baited hook if it means I will get to spend some time with someone I care about. There are a lot of things I like doing as in boating,swimming, listening to music,dancing, riding motorcycles, camping, etc. My ultimate goal and what I think would make me happy is to have a man by my side that I love and loves me, and children that I can raise and have fun with. I guess it is the typical individual dream. Ok, for my questions to you. What are some of your goals, hopes and dreams? How long have you been single? What do you do for fun? Tell me more about yourself and so send some more pictures if available.
