

Safari Time II

This was a re-bait of Sarah and the idiot "lawyer". The main reason I did this was because Sarah did not respond to me after I sent her the Goat-Fucker Agreement Letter. The lawyer did, but not her. I baited her again from a Yahoo Account, and kept getting the lawyers Yahoo Email shut down (3 times), and then complained to Sarah about it!

note that any amount you spend in the course of helping me out will be refunded back to you same day as soonas we clear the fund from the security company before taking the rest to the bank for losgement and onward transfer to your account in your country.

Please,be understanding and assist me out.its just a matter of 2 working days everything will be concluded and both of us will laugh together and move to your country for the investment there.I i have the money,i dont mind sending to you but right now i dont have until this fund is cleared from the security company i can boast of having money with me.

E-MAIL: alexandra-attorney@webmail.co.za

I will look over these documents and get back to you. Thank you.

Greg

(He is using a Yahoo Email address so I report him to abuse@yahoo.com)

I tried to reply back to your lawyer and his email is shut down. I contacted Yahoo and they said it was shut down due to fraudulent activities. What is going on here???

Greg

Dear Greg,

Thank you for your mail. I contacted my Lawyer about this and he confirmed that someone got access to their Password to open their mails hence, they reported the case to yahoo that led to the closure. His mail address is thus: specialduties_s@yahoo.com

Please, communicate to him through this new email address.

Kind Regards,
Mrs. Sarah

(email #2)

You may want to inform your lawyer it's not smart to conduct confidential, professional business using a free Yahoo email account. I will send those copies either tonight or tomorrow once I have my lawyer look them over. Is there any way I can fax them to his office instead of email? I think it would be safer.

Greg

Dear Sir,

This is to acknowledge the receipt of your mail. We will be waiting for the signed copies from you.

Yours Faithfully,
MRS SHARON BROWN.

for:JACK BOTHA ESQ.

It will be later today or tomorrow - I have to meet up with my lawyer first and as soon as he looks them over, I'll sign and fax them to you.

Greg

(The idiot sent his above email to me 12 times within an hour. I was pissed...)

You just sent me 8 emails that said the same thing.

Stop - once is enough.

Greg

(4 more times)

Stop sending me the same email over and over you freaking moron...

Dear Sir,

Do you have to call me names for this?Our mail to you several times as you indicated is not intentional.Over here,we recieved failure delivery message hence,the resend.

Your altitude so far do not show any maturity to conclude this transaction with our Client.You need to learn how to talk to people that you dont even know.

Yours Faithfully,
MRS SHARON BROWN.

for:JACK BOTHA ESQ.

When someone continually keeps sending the same email over and over after I ask them to stop, yes it does make me mad. Don't lecture me on maturity on concluding this transaction - what kind of law office gets it's free email shut down due to fraudulent activities and has to open another free email account? Or a law office that can't figure out how to send an email one time?

Yes, I want to conclude this transaction with Miss Ndlovu - but so far you haven't shown your competency yet. I hope your service doesn't get any worse.

Greg

Dear Sir,

This is to acknowledge the receipt of your mail.Its very unfortunate this has to happen this time.Our server is down at the moment hence,the free yahoo mail address.

You can send us the signed copies through the fax line:+27 86 63 33 410.

Yours Faithfully,
MRS SHARON BROWN.
for:JACK BOTHA ESQ.

(sent from his 3rd email address- specialduties_a@yahoo.com – I report it to Yahoo Abuse)

What the hell is wrong with your lawyer? Is he stupid? He keeps sending me the same email over and over and over, even though I have asked him to stop. He sent me the same email 12 times now in the last hour.

Greg

Dear Greg,

Thank you for your mail and your advice. My Lawyer knows what is right and what is wrong. Please, do let me know as soon as you fax the copies to them as promised.

Kind Regards,
Mrs. Sarah

I tried emailing your lawyer the copies and his "new" email address was shut down too.

This is what Yahoo says in return;

In this particular case, we have taken appropriate action against the Yahoo! account in question that was reported for fraudulent activities, as per our Terms of Service (TOS). Please know that Yahoo! is unable to disclose the action taken on another user's account with a third party. We are not able to make exceptions to this rule.

How well do you know this lawyer? He has two email addresses shut down by Yahoo for fraud? I think he is a criminal or a scammer and is trying to steal your money. You may want to find another lawyer.

Let me know,

Greg

Dear Greg,

I can not understand why this yahoo issue is giving you much concern. My Lawyer have explained to you that someone is getting access to their mails and hence, they reported the case to yahoo that closed the account. Same thing happened in the second mail.

He gave you a fax number to send the signed copies and I can not understand why the problem they are having with yahoo should be your problem?

Alexander Attorneys is one of best Legal Firm here and will not steal my money. I will not judge him because of the yahoo mail problem they are having currently and I will advice that you do not judge him as well. Or, do you have anything to do with the closure? I know that, if anyone in the States makes a complain to Yahoo Office about a particular user,they will close that address.Do you have anything to do with this closure?

Send the signed copies through the fax number given to you by the Lawyer and forget the problem they are having with yahoo as it is not your problem.Once the transfer application is made,the Bank wwill contact you directly to confirm the transfer and not the Lawyer.

Kind Regards,

You can't understand my concern when you want me to send confidential papers to a lawyer, and every time I try to, their free email address is shut down for fraud? I did fax the copies to the number I was given, but he said he did not receive them. When I tried to email him, he email is shut down, and this is of no concern of yours? I know nothing about this law firm except that they use free email to conduct business, which Yahoo tells me there is some kind of fraudulent activity going on. How dare you insinuate that I have had anything to do with it.

What is the address and web site of the law firm?

Greg

Dear Greg,

The Lawyer had already given you reason why the email was closed down.Send the signed copies to their fax number:+27 86 6333 410.Their website is down at the moment due to some ungradement going on there.

Fax the copies to him.

Kind Regards,

Can I just send the copy to you instead?

Greg

Dear Greg,

Yes,you can send the copy to my mail address and I will forward it to the Lawyer.

Kind Regards,

Mrs.Sarah

Here's the document - make sure you send it to the lawyer too, if he has an email account that is open.

Thanks a lot,

Greg

SURPRISE

GOAT-FUCKER!

Yes, of course I knew it was a scam, you stupid moron!

You have to be the dumbest scammer I have ever met!

My friends and I laughed our asses off at how stupid you are!

Do you really believe that I would waste one penny travelling to your filthy country??? Your whole continent is filled with war, poverty, disease, crime, and idiotic scammers that are too stupid and lazy to get a real job! Do the world a favor and cut your own throat. That would be the best thing for you. Do you wonder why the whole world hates you and your filthy, disgusting people???

Your stupidity will be chronicled on my website – hope you stop by for a visit;

www.MACSBaitStore.com

If you read the first Safari Time scambait, you would know that it ended with me in South Africa at a Hotel where I sent this “Partnership Agreement” to both of them. I thought it would be funny if they got it again...

Between the two scambaits, I kept “her” busy for about 3 months...
