

Saving Face

Saving Face – these scammers would rather waste time and look like a bigger idiot, than admit they lied or are wrong. In many scams, I'll have a "Military man" scammer speak Nigerian (Yoruba) to me and then call me a scammer if I recognize it as Nigerian.

debbiedawson0404: ok, never mind about that - where are you from?

Ellis Parker: I AM FROM THE Minnesota

Ellis Parker: and you?

debbiedawson0404: lol

The reason I am laughing here, is that I just ended a scambait with some Nigerian (Donald) who also told me he was from Minnesota. As soon as I ended it with him, this fool contacts me, also from Minnesota.

Ellis Parker: okay
Ellis Parker: where are you from?
debbiedawson0404: you already know where I am from, Donald - I told you Ohio
Ellis Parker: okay
Ellis Parker: well tell me about yourself

Ellis Parker: omo iya mi
debbiedawson0404: lol
Ellis Parker: be noni debbiedawson0404: see how stupid you are, black fool?
Ellis Parker: bro he don do now debbiedawson0404: Do you see why the whole world hates black people?
debbiedawson0404: all you do is lie and beg debbiedawson0404: That's why we made you slaves, black fool debbiedawson0404: run away black fool

He logs out. This has happened with many scammers that I have scambaited – they would rather waste time and argue that they didn't lie, or that they are not black, or that they are not a scammer, etc., etc., than just giving up the scam when they should know that they have no chance. Like the Chinese, they do call this “saving face”. To me, it just shows how fragile their ego and mentality really is. I have had dozens of scammers speak Nigerian to me while posing as an American, only to call me a scammer when I laugh at them or tell them to go away.
