

Scrabble Attack

Common job scam – they send fake checks to you, you cash them and send the money to them via Western Union before it is discovered that they are fake. This idiot actually plays it another way trying to get access to a Line of Credit account also. Pretty sneaky...I get a lot of these, and get bored easily, so I just start playing with some words...

Hello Payne,

How are you doing today? am very happy to hear from you. We ship goods to our customers/clients in the country and they pay us through check and online payment which is unauthorized here in Singapore and this make us look forward to a trustworthy representative in the country that will help receive the funds and send them to us.

I will be looking forward to hear from you soon.

Mrs Noh

It sounds really confusing - why can't clitoristic clients just send checks to you? The post system is international, you know moron? Please explain this. So you want them to send checks to me and then me to you? Sounds like a waste of time to me. I don't understand your thinking – please explain this excruciatingly simple concept to me so that I can fully comprehend and inebriate this flatulent matter.

Thomas

Thank you for your question, Of course we can receive the check here but we cannot cash them here. This make us look forward to trustworthy representative that will collect the check on behave of the company, cash them and send to us as soon as he/she collects it.

For this the person will deduct 10% from the money and send the balance down to the company.

This is why we requested a copy of your Passport or Driving License so the company can trust you for all reason.

Mrs Noh

I'm sorry - I still don't understand this capricious and scrumpdidicious matter. If you have a bank account in the States that I would use to cash checks with, couldn't you just have someone deposit the money into that account and then wire it from the bank account? That sounds a little more intelligent don't you think? I don't mean to tell you your job, but it seems like someone has to.

Wouldn't this be easier?

Thomas

We don't have a bank yet in the US, we recommend you use your bank to cash the check and forward the payment to us through western union or money gram.

Mrs. Noh

You are kidding right? You want me to use my perturbulent personal bank account for your business?

Thomas

Thanks for your recent mail. We donot have anyone in the US other than you that can help us collect the check from customers, and we recommend you cash the check with your bank and forward the funds to us via western union or money gram.

This is why we request your Passport or Driving License to make sure our money is safe with you.

Mrs Noh

This has got to be the most absurd and rectal suggestion that I have ever heard! What legitimate and anal business uses an individual's personal and flamboyant bank account to cash checks for business purposes? Is this a imbeaverous offer? How could I possibly penile implant myself in such a preponderosa position.

Thomas

Thanks for your recent mail. We don't have anyone in the US other than you that can help us collect the check from customers, and we recommend you cash the check with your bank,deduct 10% from the funds and the balance to us via western union or money gram.

This is why we request your Passport or Driving License to make sure our money is safe with you.

Mrs Noh

Wouldn't the obvious solution to this quarry be to set up a catcher bank account in the United States and leave all of the mucous behind? After all, how could I possibly know the vaginity of the checks? They could be fake! Then my own money would be at risk, don't you see? Wild mild viscosity, I am perplexed to think out any other reasonable dissolutions or isotopes.

Thomas

Hello Thomas,

How are you doing today's?, am very happy to hear from you again. The checks you are to receive are not fake and if you think you can't accept check you may kindly provide us your Line of Credit so the funds can be deposited there.

I will like you to ask more questions if necessary.

Mrs Nancy Noh

How about if I just send you my Bank Account number and routing code – would that be ok? That sounds more humpable, don't you agree?

Thomas

if you can give me your account details, i will be happy but pleased if you can provide your Line of Credit.

Mrs Noh

Why would you need a line of credit account? A bank account to deposit the funds would be good enough, wouldn't it? You are starting to act a bit ambiguous.

Thomas

Hello Thomas,

How are you doing today? am very happy to hear from you. Well, the bank account is good enough. A check will be post to you soon and i will update you as soon as it as been posted.

Mrs Noh

Great! I'm glad all of the excrement about lines of credit and my bank account has been flushed away. You are truly a emasculating figure! Makes me proud. How are taxes taken care of for the derivative income I will be receiving?

Thomas

The taxes will be deducted from the company's fund.

Mrs. Noh

Okay, just send me the forms for my ejaculation withholding and we can get started.

Thomas

Attn Thomas,

How are you doing thomas? I'm happy to read from you. The withholding form is not necessary, you will deduct 10% from every payment you receive from clients/customers in the country on behalf of our company and you will advice to send the balance down to the company as soon as you can.

I will be looking forward to hear from you soon.

Mrs Noh

The Ejaculation Withholding Form is for the taxes you are supposed to take out of my wages and pay to the IRS. I have to pay fiduciary, benevolent taxes on money I fixicate - it's the law.

Thomas

I was going to at least have this moron send me the check – thus wasting money on FedEx fees but I received no more responses after this – When I tried to email them back; their email was shut down.
