

The Gruesome Foursome

This fool keeps creating new profiles and contacting me, trying his scam over and over. One of his fake profiles (Roland James), admits that he is a scammer and only does it to pay for his schooling and also admits he is also Patrick John, another military man from Dallas, Texas. Roland tells me that those are his only two fake profiles and that he is sorry. Then Jack Dawson contacts me for friendship...lol. I know this is also the same person because when any one profile logs in or out, so do the other two with it. Yes, that's right – all three log in and out at the exact same time. Then a new one Patrick James contacts me – now four profiles on my buddy list log in and out at the same exact time. I haven't actually talked to Patrick James yet, but I know he is one and the same.

This isn't over with this fool. Roland James still thinks I am going to help him and still contacts me regularly – I haven't let him know that I know he is Steve Dawson and Patrick James as well as the other two he admitted to.
