

The Name of Payne

Whenever they send out the ASEM which says "...my client shares the same last name as you...", I like to respond from an email account that doesn't reveal my last name and then to torture these fools as to what their client's name is. It's funny seeing these idiots squirm knowing they cannot match their client's name to mine without knowing mine first. These goofballs take it to a new level of stupidity by switching the names back and forth.

I am Barrister ARIF AHMED, an attorney at law. A deceased client of mine, that shares the same last name as yours died as the result of a heart-related condition on March 12th 2005. His heart condition was due to the death of all the members of his family in the tsunami disaster on the 26th December 2004 in Sumatra Indonesia. And in the record there is no known successor to this deposit of the deceased who died without a will.

My late Client has a deposit of Eighteen Million Dollars (US$18 Million Dollars) left behind. Contact me for more details.

What is your client's last name?

Thomas

Still sir that is why i contacted you to see if we can work together to get this money been transfer to you and me get my percentage also.

Arif Ahmed

But in your first email you said you contacted me because we have the same last name? Did you lie? How did you get my email address if you didn't even know my last name?

Thomas
