

The Price Of Heaven

Another dying philanthropist scam where they want to give someone all their riches to donate to charity as their last dying wish. These are usually pretty fun, but this whore isn't reading or responding to my emails; she is just continuing her agenda which is totally unacceptable!

Dear Beloved,

I am most grateful for your mail, and I seize this opportunity to thank you for coming to my rescue. However, I crave your indulgence to kindly attend to this in good faith as everything is Legal and the funds belong to my Late husband whom before his death was always helping Charitable organisation.

I hope you were not too embarrassed by my first email to you since you do not know me.

I had no option since the family of my husband in and outside Russia refused to distribute my husband funds because they wanted to keep it to themselves. I don't really know how to move the funds out and dispatched it to charity organizations, so I resulted to putting fate to test and making a random contact.

I got your email address from a private search which I did on the internet. I am communicating with only you at this moment with regards to this transaction. And I would not have any cause to do otherwise, except you state your intention to withdraw your assistance. Just like I stated in my first mail to you, this fund is presently with a bank in Europe and they would be able to transfer the funds to you immediately if you adhere strictly to their directive.

I cannot distribute these funds myself because of the following reasons:

(1) I am undergoing medical treatment and it has defiled all forms of medicine, and right now I have only about a few months to live, according to medical experts diagnosis.

(2) I want God to be merciful to me and accept my soul and so, I have decided to give help to charity organizations, as I want this to be one of the last good deeds I do on earth before my death. It is for this reason I am seeking for your assistance to stand as the beneficiary to the fund and retrieve it on my behalf and dispatched it to charity organizations. I will be sending to you some names of these organizations too. All the necessary documents required to get the Funds out of the bank are with me.

However, before I proceed further in giving you the Bank contact, I want you to give me your words that you will be very honest and straight forward with me when the money gets to you and also, that you will be able to execute this Project successfully and help me dispatched it to charity organizations. As this is MY LAST WISH BEFORE MY DEATH TO SEE ME CONCLUDE THIS.

Thus, I would want you to get back to me on the following issues if you are ready to assist me:

(1) That you are in a position to be trusted as a God fearing person with such a large amount of fund been entrusted to you. Also, that you will dispatched it to charity organization as I wanted it.

(2) That you are willing to contact the Bank company to discuss the terms of releasing the funds.

As soon as I receive your reply that you are ready to proceed under these terms, then I will furnish you with all details including the company. But if you have any questions to ask me, please ask and I will be more than happy to respond to them immediately.

I will be sending to you all the necessary documentations to conclude this Project.

Looking forward for your reply.

That is very admirable that you are donating this money to charity as one of your last good deeds to ensure your rightful place in the hereafter. Almost like you are trying to buy your way into heaven. Very noble indeed...

As for your two conditions, I must be honest with you. I am an atheist, so therefore I do not fulfill your wishes. If you don't want to continue with me and go find a God-Fearing person, then I will totally understand. But if you trust me with this money, I will promise to do anything in my power that everyone gets what they deserve. Especially you...Your place in Heaven is what I mean.

Let me know if you wish to proceed,

James Cagney

Dear Beloved ,

Blessings to you beloved. Your words in your response have given me great Joy this is a good work of charity project I have placed in your hands. My dear I will only say to you with reason of my throat cancer I am unable to speak but all I want is that the money is first safe in your account before I depart from this world.

I have told you in confidence that I want the project to be kept very secret and details of my contact with you should not be disclosed to anybody and this is because my husband's family might want to do everything to gain possession of this money for their own selfish interest.

My dear the bank in possession of the money is in Europe, the money can be transferred to your account electronically once you activate the DORMANT ACCOUNT and I need the following details below to send LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION to the bank in Europe that you are now the sole beneficiary see below:

NAME IN FULL:

CONTACT ADDRESS:

COUNTRY:

AGE:

TEL:

FAX:

OCCUPATION:

I want you to know now that if the project does not take place it will be your fault as I have done all in my power to see that everything works in the manner that we have discussed. My dear, I want you to have faith and pray always knowing the task ahead and the bold step I have taken to give you this money, I need you to always stay focused and follow instructions, there is need for prayers as obstacles will arise but all that stand against the success of this transfer and the project proper will fall.

Let me rest and leave you to pray and build your mind towards the task ahead and also always be in contact with me. It is very important that you complete this project in good faith even if I join my husband before time and always know your share of the funds is 25% and the balance must be used for the project proper which is 75% dispatching it to the list of the charity organisation that i'll be sending to you.

This is the first time I have come across where they assign fault to you before the action even commences!

First of all, you never answered my concerns in my last email. It is almost like you didn't even bother reading my email. I spoke to you saying that I am an atheist, and that was not one of your conditions of conducting this transaction with you. Once again I ask, do you have a problem with this?

A few things from your email I also want to address;

1. You want me to keep this secret? I am assuming you mean just from your vile and pathetic, money grubbing family, correct? Why would I need to keep this a secret from my family and my lawyer? After all, I need to file the papers with my government to set up a charitable institution or I will be taxed on the money I will be receiving.
2. Second, what kind of nonsense is your comment about assigning fault to this transaction. I am deeply offended that you can start blaming me for any problems that may arise before we even get started. I deserve an apology for your insolence.
3. Third, you have already chosen the charities to disburse this money? Then what do you need me for? If you already know where the money is going, then send it to them – you don't need me. I thought that I was supposed to choose where the money was going. What happened to my choices of charities? Remember, NAMBLA, the Western House Of Retired Elderly Scholars, the National Institute for Gifted Gentile Elementary Reverends, NAAWP??? Did you just dismiss them like that?

Sends the same email again, so I ignore her...

Dear Beloved James Cagney,

How are you and your family today?I got your mail and the content was well understood,I am very sorry for making you mad at me.As for keeping the project secret i mentioned that because of my late hunsband families.

Regarding that of the charities i will send you some list and you will also add some to it from your end.

Beloved please forgive me and do contact the bank with the contact details i sent to you.

Remain Blessed,

Mrs Aisha Hassan

I just received this email. Well congratulations, it seems that you finally read one of my emails. Yes, I get mad when I write emails to someone and either they don't read them or they totally ignore everything that was said in them, like you did. This is extremely rude and inconsiderate.

Yes, I will keep this whole matter secret from your husband's family – how would I even speak with them? It sounded like you meant for me not to tell anyone in my own family, and that would be just ridiculous, wouldn't it?

So now that you finally read one of my emails, please answer all of the concerns and questions I had. You may have to go back and actually read all of those emails I sent you that you totally ignored.

Thanks,

James

Dear Beloved James Cagney,

How are you today I hope all is well with you and your family? I have not heard a word from you for some days now and I am very worried, please do me a favour by updating me the stand of things now,

If the funds have been released to your account or not ? please tell me of the development so far in this project.

May God Bless you
Mrs.Aisha Hassan

I was still waiting for you to respond to my last email. I see that you are back into the habit of ignoring my emails again. Go back and read my last email, and then respond.

James

i can not keep on responding to your mails again i can see you are not ready to help out,please forget about it.i will tell the bank not do respond to your mails or call.

Aisha hassan

I would have helped you but you refused to read my emails or answer my questions. Go jump up your own ass.

Good luck finding someone else.

James

please forward the email you want me to answer because i could not find it now so i can answer you.

Remain Blessed,

Aisha Hassan

You tell me that you informed the bank not to respond to my emails and calls, all because you refuse to answer my questions, and now all of a sudden you want me to help you again??? Are you simple? Are you feeble-minded? Are you incredibly stupid? You have got to be the most ungrateful, selfish, retarded bitch I have ever had the misfortune of meeting. You should practice what you preach – you'll never get into Heaven if you continue down this road of selfish behavior.

James

Yes, that was it. I wanted to make "her" feel like it was her fault that her scam failed. After all, if you would have responded to my emails and answered all of my questions and concerns, then we could have made progress in this transaction and I could have baited her for months instead of two weeks.
