Sorry, I would rather not help you because I don't want you to come to my country to live. There is already enough crime here.

James

My coming to your country does not called for any crime sir

You said you were black – all black people are criminals. Therefore if you come here, then there will be more crime. I would rather not have you come to my country. I will continue with this deal if you promise not to come to my country.

James

Nope, no more responses. I wonder if it was something I said? I apologize for my racist comments to anyone offended by reading this, but I just wanted to get a reaction out of him, but it failed.
