

Coochie Coo, Olivia

This is the typical Dying Rich Widow Scam. It's a short scam because she was waiting for me to contact the lawyer, which I never did, and I more or less forgot about it. This was a shame because this bait had some real possibilities.

PLEASE LISTEN TO THE CRY OF A DYING WIDOW. I want you to help me distribute my ($18, 000,000 USD) to charity as I am dying of cancer. You will get 30% of the money for your work. Kindly get back to me as soon as possible so that I can provide you with contact information of the Lawyer in Nigeria. May God bless you.

Mrs.Olivia Johnson

When this butt-munch emailed me, "she" also copied it to other individuals (possible victims who I warned about her).

Who the hell is Mike Joliver?

You sent the same message to him as you just sent to me!

I thought I was the only one helping you with this – are you lying to me?

Thomas Payne

Well, if you are not smart enough to send emails correctly and to the right person, please don't ask me to send you any sensitive or confidential data to you. With all of the identity theft that goes on nowadays, we don't need anyone helping their cause. How do I contact the lawyer?

Thomas

I saw the letter you want me to write to the lawyer. Do you really want me to hire a lawyer to represent me that I have never met and know nothing about? Are you insane? And why do I need to be designated as next-of-kin? That doesn't make sense. Why not just give me limited Power Of Attorney over the funds. You obviously haven't thought this one out very good, because if I am designated as next-of-kin and I inherit this money, I could refuse to give any to you. That's right – I could steal all of your money if I wanted to. A smart person would just give me PoA over the money that way you are still the owner. Who counseled you to do this? Was it that lawyer you want me to hire? If it was, then my hunch was right and he is an idiot. If you know a smarter lawyer, you should hire him to write a PoA, granting me access to the funds to set up your bank account in the US, but don't designate anyone else as next-of-kin to your money – that is the stupidest thing I have ever heard and whoever told you to do that should be tarred and feathered. A dishonest person would steal everything you had and leave you with no money at all.

Thomas

My beloved one,
What is going on now? Have you contacted the lawyer as i told you, pls rememer that you are my only hope to live again.

Yours sister
MRS.OLIVIA J

You didn't respond to any of my questions – I asked who was the moron that gave you the advice to designate someone that you haven't met from the internet as next of kin? Was it this idiot lawyer you want be to deal with? Are you simple-minded?

Thomas

My dear friend, am making you the next of kin do not permit you to be wiser than yourself, and i can never beg you to do what you will benefit from, if you are not willing to handle this just inform me to enable me look for another person immedaitely.

Yours sister
Mrs oLIVIA J

Since you choose to be rude and insolent, please go find someone else. I was going to do this out of the goodness of my heart, and you act like a smart-ass bitch. I thought you were deeply religious?

Thomas

THANK YOU.

Is she gone? I will let her stew a while before I try to contact her again. We'll see if she comes back.

Nine days later...

My beloved one,

What is going on? I am counting on you remember, please dont allow me to die without seeing this victory pass to you to complete my last wish.

Yours Sister

Mrs OLIVIA J

Wow, you must have extremely thick skin, along with your limited mental capabilities, poor spelling, and stanky cooch. I forget where we left off – something about the lawyer - Mike Joliver, I think his name was. Was he going to contact me or should I contact him? Did he finish the Power of Attorney yet?

Thomas

My Beloved one,

Remember that tomorrow's hopes and dreams may never die for as long as you believe in yourself and follow your heart. Kindnesses in your heart will guide you to accomplish many things in life and overcome all challenges, all obstacles, and love. Never give up, always have faith in yourself and you will gain the greatest gift of all, the gift of hope and love you righteously deserve. Whatever you may do in future's way, never let anyone stand in the way of pursuing your dreams and wishes you have always dreamt of in your life. Know that you will always have families and friends to rely on and stand by whenever you need them. Vow to your words and soul that loving others with dignity and respect is the key to achieve great success and everlasting love in life. No matter what you may decide to do in life, the help, and the gratitude, will always be there from me, please follow the lawyer instruction when ever you hear from him, is the only person to help us and make it happen on time, and always update me immediately you hear from him.

Thank you and I wish the best for you.

Yours Sister

Mrs.Olivia J

Unfortunately, as funny as this one was heading, it kind of fell by the wayside. That's the problem when you try baiting too many idiots at once. The problem here was that I never contacted the fake lawyer, I was waiting for him to write me back without realizing I never wrote him, and Olivia was waiting for my response. When I realized my error, I tried contacting Olivia but her email was shut down.
