Thanks for ignoring my requests for an explanation to what this is all about. You are a stellar employee; I'm sure that your boss is real proud. At the grocery store down the street, they too hire retards to bag groceries – I'm glad to see that more companies are doing their share to employ these people. What exactly is the money to be paid for? It has been my experience that receiver's do not pay shipping fees unless agreed to in advance. Shouldn't this be the shipper's responsibility, retard?

Thomas

Do you speak or understand English? You have not answered one of my questions – it’s almost like you aren’t even reading my emails. You can read right? I understand that being a delivery boy doesn’t require vast amounts of intelligence, but you would think that the ability to read would be a requirement. What exactly is this payment for?

Why do you keep sending me this, you retard? Is there some kind of problem with paying by credit card? I don't like using Western Union because it is commonly used by West African 419 Scammers and I would not want to take any chances with dealing with that scum of the earth. But you wouldn't know anything about that, would you? No, of course not, because you are FedEx – even though you use a FREE Yahoo Email account and couldn't spell a word correctly to save your life. But I'm sure that you are the real thing even though common sense tells me otherwise...

Thomas

Yes, I was sick of this idiot and he was just sending me the same email over and over...
