

Lawyer In Tears

This was a fun bait and I should have continued on longer. But it was a battle of wills, and neither of us would give in. This is an Inheritance Scam, where they say I am the actual beneficiary of some dead foreigner, as compared with illegally posing as one. This idiot thinks that since he informed me of my good fortune, that he is automatically my lawyer and is calling the shots. In the early part of this bait, he tells me that the Hearing (reading) of the Will, will be in two days in England and knowing that I would be able to show on short notice, that I will just abide by his instructions and send in the fees. But this is unacceptable and I demand a rescheduling of the Hearing where I can be present – this opens up a new modality for this buttslammer as he says it will cost about $1400.00 to reschedule the hearing...

Attn: Client

I want to assure you once again that there is nothing to worry about for you having this will. We want to acknowledge the receipt of your email to this chamber and also want you to know that you have absolute right to reject this WILL as much as you have the right to accept it as well. If you wish to turn it down then let me know so I can send you a WILL rejection form to fill and revert back to this office. I am not at liberty to question my late client's choice of making you a benefactor of his WILL.

I know you will like to know why he chose you but these are answers I cannot help you with. At this time we can only carry out our duties as directed by our client, I will suggest you think this through and let us know what you want to do.

I can imagine that the late Engr. David Peet must have known that you will put the money to good use for the less privileged of which he was aware that you can achieve, that is why he selected you. Also, understand that I don't know you neither have I met you before, but my contacting you is based on the recommendation of late Engr. David Peet.

Be further informed that these funds will not be released to you without some proper identification. I have never met you before like I said and to be able to carry out our duties effectively as sole executors of the WILL of late Engr. David Peet, we must be convinced that you are who the testament says you are.

Please re-confirm to us through the above stated email; your full contact details to include your full name and address telephone and fax number (if any) and if you have moved to a new address then indicate both the new and old one for my verification with what I have in my file.

Any difference or discrepancies in the information provided by you will mean that I am contacting the wrong person and I will stop all communication with you out rightly.

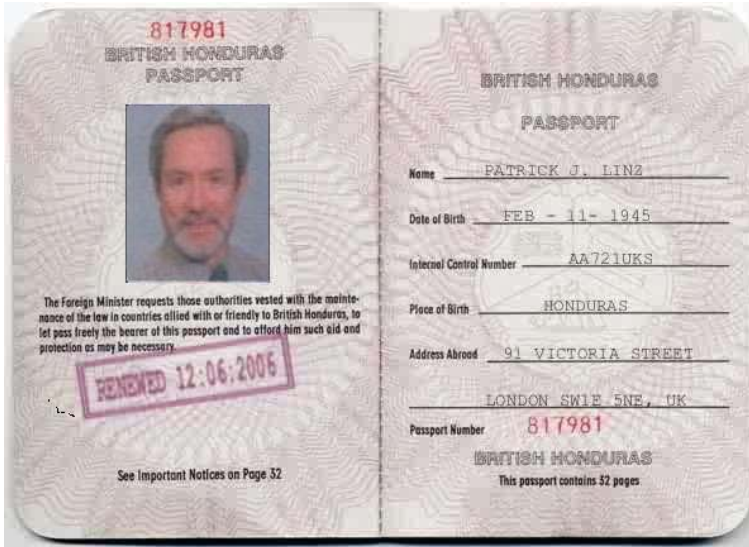

Your information would be taken to the probate division of the International Court of Justice for verification. After the confirmation, the probate division would now release your letter of administration for claims to this bequest/funds. This document as well as the Certificate of Deposit issued by the Security Deposit Bank to Engr. David Peet when the funds were deposited by him will then be released to you. This will give you the legal backing to receiving these funds.

We sincerely hope that the above requirement be sent to us sooner than later for us to proceed with the documentation. Please note that we cannot send anymore document to you until we are fully convinced that we have the true beneficiary.. Note that we have a period of (14) working days to conclude this so I can move on to the next beneficiary on the WILL of my late client.

I wait your early response to move ahead.

There is a couple things I did not understand with the email you sent. First, you say that this gentleman wants me to put the money to good use for the less privileged – is this a requirement??? If I have to use these funds to help the poor then I would rather not accept the money. You told me that I was the beneficiary of this man, not just a trustee.

The second thing I don't understand is what is this nonsense about the "next beneficiary"?

They don't want me to attend the Hearing – just to send in the fees. He couldn't arrange it otherwise because he is saying that he is in England, but he is really in Nigeria. Normally, if the victim would like to deal with this in person, a lot of scammers would try to accommodate them – possibly kidnapping and murdering them as well. But how would this buttmunch convince me that the Hearing was moved to Nigeria?

What do you mean the hearing is in two days??? Of course I cannot be there. You need to postpone it and have it rescheduled when I can appear in person. This is ridiculous – either have it rescheduled or I will call the judge myself and get it done.

The last email I sent you I asked you two specific questions which you totally ignored in this email. Please go back and actually read the email I sent you and answer the questions.

Thank you and my ID is attached.

Why would you think I would reject an inheritance if I am the legal beneficiary? Do you know what Due Process means? It means that there is a sequence of events that have to take place before you can continue with this legal action. For instance, you have to allot sufficient time to a beneficiary to make ample preparations to be present at the Probate Hearing. In other words, you can't say "The hearing is in two days, be there".

And the whole issue of wanting me to pay to postpone the Hearing is complete bullshit, and you know it. I have half a mind to report you to the authorities. I expect you to reschedule the Hearing until a time where I can be present, like you should have done in the first place when you failed to contact me. The second week of November is fine with me – pick any day from the 8th to the 14th. I will make the proper arrangements to be present at the hearing as long as there is ample time for me to prepare.

I also don't need you lecturing me on how I talk; you are not my father. If you don't want me to speak to you in such a way, then don't try to bribe me with frivolous charges.

Dear Debbie Dawson.

With respect to your mail, I have sent the date to the court and they ask me about the up-front charge before they can accept the date.

Let me put it to you that without this charge being paid, be rest assured that the hearing is not going to take place on any of the date as this is a procedure that we must have to follow for them to Re-scheduled and Notarize the new date for you to be present at the Probate Hearing. As soon as you send the up-front charges they will issue a date that is either 8th to the 14th for the hearing.

So if you don't mind, I will like you to send the money so I can get it to the court. Please I am a very busy person and will not have all the time to start all over again so I will advise that you kindly send the up-front charge with the details of our account officer I sent to you and I am sending it again to you now.

You are to make the payment via western union money transfer with the name of our account officer.

Receiver's Name: Mr. Lucas Maxwell

Sender's Name:

I gave you an update from the court and you are telling me that you want to confirm as if you are talking to a 10 years old child so you mean i can give right update or do you think you are the first person to have hearing in the court, that start calling the court to confirm if a lawyer is lying to you.For God sake i am a Barrister and you can't teach me my job.What do you know about the Law, there are over 30 register working in the court so how do you know whom of them is handling the hearing and preciding over the date.

I already to the court that you are coming so there is no-way the hearing is going to take place without you been there so you most be there for sure and i know you will.

I am here doing my Job and you have to follow my instructions for me to be able to work effectively.I want you to know that we can't continue like this as we are not kids, So let me know when you are send it so i can get along to the court with it.

I don't know you or anything about you, so don't ask me to predict if what you are telling me is true or not. I am not a fortune teller. If what you say is true, why are you getting upset about me wanting to confirm it? I will tell you why I want to confirm it – you email me and tell me that the hearing is in two days in England, which of course I can't make. And you want me to believe that the court wants me to pay over $1000.00 to have it rescheduled when I only received 2 days notice? That is not right.

As to what I know about the law, it seems that I know more than you do. Are you doubting that if I call the Probate Court, I cannot find the Magistrate or court that is handling the hearing? I'm sure once I explain it to whoever I talk to there that they will point me in the right direction. I know the decedents name, nationality, etc. as well as your name and law firm. I think I have enough information for the court to determine who is handling the hearing.

I am very sorry if you think that i am upset but how do you want me to feel when i am telling the truth.Why is it hard for you to understand that i am to handle the issue.So you be at rest why i do my job but calling the court now is not necessary because i know my job perfectly well.

You are finding it hard because the court is asking you for an up-front charges. Don't think i am asking you money against the wish of the court, what i can't do is collecting money when it not necessary. My client late Engr. David Peet trust me so well, to be able to handle is WILL that was why he made me his Lawyer. Don't feel i am telling not to call the court because of anything, because it will sound as if i not capable of doing my Job and I am here to represent all the beneficiary of late Engr. David Peet so you better get it strength that you are the one changing the date and Re-scheduling it, so kindly do what is necessary and stop wasting time. I can never be upset with you for anything because i know you are only trying to understand ourselves better before meeting at the hearing.

My brain has been neutralizing as where to start from again, You just get back to me so i can handle it with the court. I have been on this field for years so don't let down my reputation.

Mind you we are working together so i see no reason why all this should be happen.

I must apologize to you in one respect – there is a fee to reschedule a Hearing at the designated Probate Registry. I contacted the English Probate Court and they said I had to fill in a form that they sent me to reschedule the hearing. They also said the processing fee to the court was 15 pounds, not 880, or whatever someone told you. Once the Probate Registry contacts me back with the required information, I will let you know if I need help filling out the form.

Firstly, I have all the right to drop your file and proceed with other beneficiary and that is what I am about to do now, I already sent a copy of your file to the court that I am dropping you as one of the beneficiary of my late client WILL until further notice and so by tomorrow morning I hope to get a response from them so I can proceed with the next person on my list.

Secondly, I see no reason why you should be given me problem with my job, when you are ready to take my words then you can update me and we will proceed with your file then we will have to re-open your file, as for now you are not yet ready. Let me ask you one question since you know too much. Who are you to respect more, the Lawyer or the register? Can a register represent you in court? Yes or No

So you can do whatever you like with the register but I tell you it will be a waste of effort and time maybe then you will learn some lesson. It is not all barrister you can disrespect. I know my right and you better stop talking as if you were the one that called me to bar.

If 880 pounds is your problem then I want you to know that it is not my problem.

Are you under the assumption that you are my lawyer or that you represent me in any way? Because you don't. You are the lawyer for the deceased and it is your job to fulfill the conditions of the Will, which means you have to carry out your fiduciary responsibility to the deceased. In other words, you cannot "drop" a bona fide beneficiary to the Decedent's Estate. You can't "re-write" his Will. That is not your choice. Where did you get your law license from? A Cracker-Jack box?

In your question as to who I respect more, you or the court, do I even need to answer that? Of course it is the court, especially when it seems like you do not know what you are doing. It is not the money that bothers me – I have plenty of money, it is your obvious incompetence that bothers me.

Let us rehash your ineptitude;

1. You contact me two days before the hearing to inform me that I should be present there.
2. At first you say, it can't be rescheduled, that I am not needed there.
3. Then, you say that to reschedule it, it will cost 880 pounds which I found out to be false.
4. Now, you think that you can decide on your own to drop me, against the provisions of the Will and prevent me from gaining my inheritance.

Now do you see why I question what you say. You obviously don't know a lot about the law or the English Probate System, so of course I am going to question what you say. Just because you say you are a barrister doesn't demand my respect – respect is earned and you have yet to earn it.

I am sorry if I hurt your feelings and you are bitter because of it, but it is time to stop acting like a child and for you to do your job correctly.

You should state the number and type of copies you need on the checklist on page 4 of the PA1 (application form). Please print the name of the deceased person on the back of the cheque.

Please ensure you order sufficient copies for your needs, when you send in your application.

Please note: Appropriate post must be paid. (Standard rate postage may not be sufficient. If your forms weigh over 60g they may need to be weighed at your local Post Office.)

Fee Refunds/Remissions
If you consider that you would suffer financial hardship if you pay a court fee you can apply for remission (or if you have already paid a fee a refund of that fee or part thereof). If you wish to make such an application you should ask a member of the Registry staff to supply you with form EX160 (including form EX160A). Please note that fee exemption, as described in that booklet, does not apply with regard to non-contentious probate fees.

Your application will not be processed until the fee is paid (or an application for refund/remission has been successful).

This is a real list of fees from the English Probate Court!

The most expensive fee was the filing fee of 90 pounds.

Copies were one pound.

I did not call because I didn't get home last night until after 8:00pm – which would be 1:00am in England, I believe. What do you mean no progress? I contacted the court, I received the form I needed, I found all the information I needed to know, and I am in the process of filling out the form to send to the court, LIKE THEY TOLD ME TO DO!

The only thing that is amiss here is that 880 pounds that you made up to get a hearing re-scheduled which the court informed me is a complete lie.

Did you read the document I sent? There is no 880 pound charge on there is there? You can see the 15 pound charge though...

Do you wonder why I question your competence?

Dear Debbie Dawson.

You asked me a question(Do you wonder why I question your competence? and the answer : No) so can you tell why you always question my competence?.

If what you want is to waste your time fine, I will gladly help you do that .I have never meet any one that is self agreed like you, You think I am interested in your money just tell that you don't have money and stop playing as if you have the money .I don't know why sometime you think as if I don't do my job any body is going to hold me. I am one of the member of the High Judiciary Committee.

So I am still give you words of advice, Just follow my instructions and stop wasting your time thus I was the only that told my secretary to write you and notify you because I am not dirty minded,will you ever do what I did for you.

If it was some other barrister they will not tell you after contact you the 1st and it fail they will just skip it into their own but here you are taking be for granted. I am given you the last warn and I will not repeat myself again and I will not response to you either maybe by then it will be too late for you.( I am with all the document backing you as one of the beneficiary of my late client so you see that the key is why me. There is nothing you can do, you will still come back to me, I don't want to put you through any pain that is why I am taking this time to talk to you.

ARE YOU READY TO COMPLY WITH ME OR DO YOU STILL WANT TO KEEP ON WASTING YOUR TIME ? the choice is yours.You can send this mail I am sending to you to anywhere in the world and I will represent myself.

What nationality are you? I can barely understand your entire email, and it is obvious that English is not your first language (which is strange seeing that you are from an English Law Firm). What is all that nonsense about if I have money, or to stop playing if I have money? What is that supposed to mean? I am an Executive Assistant to a CFO of a mid-size Corporation – I would be willing to bet that I make twice as much as a lawyer who doesn't seem to know English Law very well and has trouble spelling common words.

I am doing exactly as the court instructed me, so why are you questioning what I am doing? As I said before, you are not my lawyer; you are the lawyer for the deceased. What does it matter if you have some documents in your possession? This will be handled and administered by the English Probate Court, not you. You are not the "key" as you put it, you are just a hired employee doing a job and I expect you to do it right for a change.

I don't know what you want from me; you are not getting 880 pounds for a rescheduling fee, when the court already told me to fill out the form and send in the 15 pound fee.

Dear Debbie Dawson.

I am in receipt of your last email. Unfortunately, you have no respect for me as any elderly man let alone as a lawyer. I am not in anyway persuading you or trying to take what belongs to you but instant I am trying to do my job. You can't imagine an elderly man like myself writing you with glasses and still you ask stupid questions, if not for you I don't send mail for any reason what so ever, if I am not mistaking I am older than your father or your father maybe older than myself thus with full confidence, you don't respect your father cause if you do then you will not be talking to me this way, I completed 64 years old this year and you allow yourself to be controlled by someone and insult me. My first son is an accountant and my second son is a Medical doctor and if it interest you to know my little kid is studying lawyer, I am not doing bad for a living. I don't care how much you make in a day or in an hour but I mean no disrespect when I used those words I used.

You have insulted my reputable and reliability in so many ways but this last insult is what I can't take anymore, if you so much doubt me why then do you write me, Please don't contact me anymore and that is final. I am not your lawyer and I don't intend to be. I am seriously perplexed with all your insult and I write you will great cry in my heart last insult.

Please I don't want to persuade you against your wish but we are not met to be friends. So please go. I know fully well that no one will ask me why I don't do my job and if anyone should ask, I have words for them.

Bye and Take care of yourself.

Did you get that? He writes with "Great Cry in his Heart". That is awesome!

*****

Once again, I can barely understand your email because of all of the misspellings. "Elderly" is spelled like this, and "insult" is spelled like this. Those are just two of the many... (Oh, and thanks for answering my question as to your nationality).

I don't know where in my last email you consider an insult – I consider it all astute observations. I will abide by the directions of the court, especially when I find out that things you said to me are false. You act like I owe you respect for some reason – why? Because you are old and stupid? Because you are a lawyer? You earn respect, and that is what you have not done by telling me things that are completely false. Even when the burden of proof is against you, you still hang on to your mistakes? Why? Did you read the paper I received from the court? Where was the 880 pounds you spoke of? It wasn't there, was it? And now you are upset and want respect for doing your job incorrectly and emails full of spelling and grammar errors?

I never asked, nor care for your friendship – you were hired to do a job, and now you say you will what? Not finish? Quit? All because I hurt your feelings? Even for a 64 year old man you need to grow up a little.

I will let you know when the court contacts me and if you don't respond, then I'm sure I will see you at the re-scheduled hearing date.

Debbie

*****

I did think I would hear from him again in the next few days, but I didn't. I'm sure that he now assumes I tried to continue with the Court and found out he was false. If he would have waived the sill rescheduling charge, we could have gone on with the bait longer, but he was as stubborn as I am. He knew that it was probably the only way to get money from me, because I told him I was coming to England to attend to this in person.

I really liked this bait – after reading his emails, you do almost think that his feelings were hurt!

A Great Cry in his Heart...That rocks!

What! This idiot won't quit – we have more updates!!! And an admission of guilt!

*****

How are you doing today, Mrs. Debbie Dawson. I have not be updated about you and the court register.

Yours Faithfully,
Barrister Patrick Linz Esq.

*****

I am surprised that the court did not contact you. I sent in the fee and the Court document and they rescheduled the Hearing to the 18th of November.

Here is the details I received seeing that the Court failed to report it to you.

London Probate Department
PRFD, First Avenue House
42-49 High Holborn
Ground Floor
Holborn London England
WC1V 6NP

DX 941 London Chancery Lane

My appointment is at 9:00AM on Wednesday.

I told you I knew what I was doing.

Debbie

*****

Dear Debbie Dawson.

Thanks for your mail and i must also say thanks you for fixing a date for the hearing of the WILL,unfortunately, i am not around.

I have a few question for you and your adviser.

Firstly,is it right to re-schedule a date without the concept of the lawyer ? Is that how it is done in the place you came from ?

Secondly,What makes you feel i need your respect or money ?

Life is not all about how far but how WELL.I already told you, I am very okay with the way things are going on in my family, I have been able to raise two graduates in accounting and medical field.

I am not against you for any reason,I am angry with you because you take advise from someone whom know little or nothing about law.

Client don't book or re-schedule date for lawyer or barrister but lawyer's do for client and you have to get that now.

I complement your effect but you can't compel me to go against what i know,880 pounds is to re-schedule date and all that.You can still go back to your collaborate or whom so ever is given you that adviser that 15 pounds is for re-schedule of date and tell the person I said so.

Well,I'd like to also advise you, don't waste your money booking tickets because it is not going to hold without my concept.You are like a Daughter to me and that is a fatherly adviser to you (listen and be calm) because that is the only way to be focus in Life.When you are finally ready let me know.

Yours Faithfully,
Barrister Patrick Linz Esq.

What do you mean “you are not around”? Did you flee the country? In disgrace?

There you go again – you are acting like you are my lawyer – is that what you think? You are not, I repeat, you are not my lawyer – I would never hire a lawyer who doesn’t seem to know anything about British Law. Even when I send you the documents from THE COURT, you doubt the validity of them. Where on that form does it say 880 pounds? It doesn't because you just made that up. I will send you the form that I received from the court again so you can look at it (attached).

To answer your question – I never asked, nor care for your respect. When did I ever say this? You were the one whining like a child about me not respecting you, when I found almost everything that you said to be wrong or false. The advice I took about this whole matter was from the court itself, and you want me to believe that the court is wrong and you are right even though you can't seem to spell common words right???

Aside from your many spelling and grammar errors in this email, you also seem to have forgotten that you told me that you had three children, not two as you speak of in this email. You may want to go back and re-read your past emails to find out how many children you have. Here, I will help you out;

- Child #1 – Doctor
- Child #2 – Accountant
- Child #3 – Lawyer (this is the one you forgot that you had)

Love,
Debbie

Dear Debbie Dawson.

what happen to your understanding maybe it is failed you this time,i say two graduate and my last kid is still in school studing law,can't you get that ? and that mean he is an under-graduate. What disgrace are you talking about here ?. I now understand why you took to the ideal from the court register,because it was not expensive but me telling you 880 pounds it look very large and you want to escape it,sorry my deal that is a wrong door you are about to use,you still have to come to the right door and follow up with the procedure that i have given you. As for my spelling, I am very sorry i can't waste time writen too many words as you made me do, Well, there is nothing i can do i just have to write because you need understanding about the law and that is what i am trying to give to you thus i may not be your lawyer but i am a lawyer to meet before getting what you want now.So it all the samething.

We can be friends if you will want us to be but at the moment i am out of town.

Yours Faithfully,
Barrister Patrick Linz Esq.

*****

Yeah, I will give you that one. I misread your email, and I just assumed that you forgot one of your children. Unlike you, I can admit when I make a mistake. You say you are out of town? Where are you? Are you going to be present at the Probate Hearing? I am very interested in meeting you, where we will see who is right. Let me know...

Debbie

*****

Dear Debbie Dawson.

You sound very well like a kind person but sometimes you seen to be up and very hard to calm, Well, i understand that is the way of the young people now these days.

If it interest you to know,I am in Mexico handling over some important file to a client thus i will be at the probate hearing depending on your commitment and talking about your commitment,you and i know fully well that I can't just come back to be at the hearing because of your kind words or base on the fact that you want to meet with me of which you know I am a busy person.I will be present at the hearing pending on the fact that you will send 250 pounds for my arrangement before the hearing date,as you already knows, i have important rolls to play at the hearing.

The issue on how to meet with me is not a problem because i will be at the airport personally and take you to any hotel of your chance that will also depend on you but if you want to stay at my place,I will gladly receive and give the little hospitality that i have maybe that you will meet with my children that i talk about.

So when you are ready to send it let me know so i can inform my secretary to go over to the bank to get it.This is the only way i can know your level of commitment and it is final.

Yours Faithfully,
Barrister Patrick Linz Esq.

*****

What are you talking about? I was being polite and just asking if you were going to be at the Hearing. Why would I send you money? Once again, you seem confused – you are not my lawyer. Do you understand this? Because I don't think you do. I will be at the Hearing, and I was just wondering if you were going to be there because you said you were not in town.

Debbie

Dear Debbie Dawson.

Well, I am very sorry to say that because, i wanted to do you some good but seen you don't need it.I was thinking of calling my secertary tomorrow morning to go over to the court and give them some money to book for the hearing without your notice because i know fully well that the date you think you have book will not workout but i just wanted to do you some good but now i see you don't need it and good are not to be done for person's like you.

I can't come anymore,i have done the best i can do for you and i will like to advise you not to waste your ticket fee and all that because it is not gooding to work.

Yours Faithfully,

*****

I can't understand what you are trying to say in this last email. What nationality did you say you were? What does "its not gooding to work" mean? What does "book for the hearing" mean? If you are having trouble speaking English, please have you secretary help you and write me back.

Debbie

*****

Dear Debbie Dawson.

What I am say is very simply,I will not be there and since you where the one that re-schedule date of the probate hearing thus you can still be persent along at the hearing.

My nationality is your mum last name,you talk like a fool sometimes.what is wrong with your sense of human,you can't read a simple mail and understood it,all you do is complain as if you know more than your father.I can never have someone like you as a child,you are just too stupid to be my child or someone i have anything to do with.Look let me warn you now,don't contact me again.

Yours Faithfully,
Barrister Patrick Linz Esq.

What are you going to do if I contact you again? What could an uneducated, African Scammer possibly do to me? You are a freaking idiot and a beggar. Don't try to pose as a lawyer or an Englishman, you are way too stupid to pass for either. English lawyers do not send emails riddled with spelling and grammar errors, and unlike you, they know about the law. You are obviously a poor, grubby, little scammer from that disease infested continent called Africa.

Why does everything bad in this world come from Africa? War, crime, disease, AIDS, stupidity – all rooted in your filthy continent. Yes, of course I knew this was all a scam – you are very stupid and I wanted to see how long I could keep you going, pissing you off all the way. I traced your IP Address after the first email and of course it is coming from Nigeria.

I am sorry that you are poor and stupid and a thief. It was pretty funny how you kept begging me for money even though I found the right amount on the English Probate Court website. My friends and I laughed our asses off at that. It was also funny about you pretending that your children were accountants and lawyers and doctors – that was hilarious! Everyone knows that all Africans have sex with goats because African women are so ugly.

So your little goat-children are Professionals? Maybe they can teach you to spell common words correctly, you complete and utter moron.

I pity you; your parents must cry a lot in shame knowing that their worthless son is a pathetic thief.

With love,
Debbie

*****

Dear Debbie.

Thanks for your mail and the content will noted.I am very happy you know where the mail is coming from but for you to send your Identification that mena you are also interested in this too.

Well, I green with you that africa has nothing to write home about but i belive that we have to be proud of where we came from and i am very happy I am from Nigeria and i hope it will be a great place soon days.

I will like to ask you some question and i hope you have a positive answer for me,ARE YOU SAYING THAT YOU PEOPLE ARE THE BEST PEOPLE IN THE WORLD THAT DON'T GET INVOLVED IN ANYTHING THAT IS BAD ?

I read in paper that an American raped a 2 years old baby is that good news for you.now you imagine, you filed and send me your details and i also send you mail from Ford Foundation and you fell for me.at list show me some respect for fooling you and if it interest you to know i am a little boy so you see that i have brain more than you.

I don't want to get involved with anything that is not good for this simple reason i take little from the rich and give to the poor like me as you said.Just like i asked you about your job and i know you are very rich but you don't want to help with liitle.Do you think i planed of becoming a scammer or do you think i will continue to be a scammer,NO way.I will stop when i get something to settle with and i belive if you are kind enogh you can help me stop being a scammer.I can also make you and your friends laugh more,if you want to know my name i will tell you but you have to promise to assist me in whatever way you can.I am not a good writer so i can error but at list you are well educated and can understand me.

Thanks and I pray to hear from you again in good health.

My good person.

Yes, this was the funniest email of them all. Do you think that I didn't know the Ford Foundation is a scam? Look at the return name that I sent when I responded to the email – Pullie Mecrotch. Do you understand what this means? Pull Me Crotch, or better yet, Pull My Crotch. I see dozens of these letters every week, and I answer them all – all with made up names. Do you think that the Driver's License I sent you is real? Of course it isn't.

Don't tell me that you don't wish that you were from America because I know you do. Yes, as an American, that does mean I am better than you. I go to work every day, earn a good living, have a house and 2 cars, and don't steal from people. Can you say the same? No you can't, you are too stupid and lazy to get a real job, so you try to steal from innocent people. If I honestly thought that you would stop being a pathetic scammer, I would give you money right now. But I don't think you will. I think that being a pathetic thief is in your blood.

As for crime in America, yes, unfortunately it does happen. Here is a couple more facts for you to ponder – African-Americans comprise 15% of the population in the United States but they commit 80% of the crime. Pretty staggering, isn't it? It is very sad. Like I said, it's in your blood.

As I said, if I thought you were honest I would give you money in a second, but we both know that you will lie and cheat and steal and you don't care who you steal from. I became interesting in fucking with you idiots when I read about old ladies getting scammed by idiots like you. You don't steal from the rich – you steal from anyone who believes your nonsense. Take my advice – in future scams don't pose as an English person or lawyer because your lack of intelligence is a dead giveaway.

I am glad you were finally honest in this email, and it shows you have some character – not much, but a little.

Thank you for opening your heart, but I think you will always be a thief.

Debbie (of course this isn't my real name)

*****

This bait may not be over yet. This guy seems to want to tell me his sad life in the hopes that I will send him money. We will see what I can get him to admit.
