

Lottery Wars

I get Lottery Scams all the freaking time and I hate them because they ask for the courier fees, license fees, or whatever in the first couple emails – yes, they expect getting paid with minimal work. That’s not going to happen here – first, I give him the wrong “Winning” numbers to verify. This segways into a whole big battle between two lottery companies that want my fees – a one-sided battle, but this muncher doesn’t know that.

Dear Debbie,

This is to acknowledged receipt of your email. I understand your skepticism considering all the lottery winnings on the internet, this is not a scam treated with confidentiality.

All winning email addresses were randomly selected from a batch of 50,000,000 international emails each from Canada, Australia, United States, Asia, Europe, Middle East, Africa and Oceania as part of our international promotions program which is conducted annually, consequently, you have been approved for a total pay out of ONE MILLION UNITED KINGDOM POUNDS (GBP1, 000. 000.000).

This Lottery was promoted and sponsored by a conglomerate of some multinational companies as part of their social responsibility to the citizens in the communities where they have operational base. We wish in the near future to have agents and stores all over the world where you can buy a lotto ticket or participate in any of our other games of chance and it is legitimate. You were contacted because your email address came out as one of the lucky winners.

Note: You have indeed won this cash prize from The National Lottery; you have to keep your winning confidential and you must keep the notification email until your prize has been verified and paid out to you. To file in your claim to collect the prize, you must to do as instructed by the email notification that was sent to you by the lottery coordinator and you are to adhere to all instructions.

Congratulations!

In respect to your claims kindly provide the below details so we can confirm your winning.

The other lottery scam with I copied these numbers from petered out with no excitement. They responded to my BCC's with the same nonsense – "pay the fees, don't tell anyone, the other lottery agent is an imposter, etc." I left these emails off because there were only a couple of them and you get the gist.

Dear Debbie Dawson,

ATTN: Debbie,

After going through your email with my superiors, the winning reference and batch number contained in the notification email you sent us were inputted into our database and it also confirmed that your email won. But you can only make claim either to the 1,000,000 GBP or to the 750,000 USD.

So, you are advised to fill in the claim form that was sent to you by us with details of the amount you wish to make claim on.

Note: There is no problem; you have to cease communication from every other agent to avoid duplicate information in our database.

We await your urgent response.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

He assumes control of this lottery, even though this belongs to another scammer. He warns me to not contact the other agent to avoid duplication, but from this point on I copy (BCC) the emails to the other lottery agent.

*****

Okay, I sent in the form.

What do I have to do next?

Debbie

To the other email address...

*****

ATTN: Debbie,

We have not received your claim form; we want you to re-send it to us either by fax or email.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

*****

What do you mean you haven't received it yet? I have already been contacted by one of your agents from where I sent it. A very nice, intelligent gentlemen, he was...

Debbie

*****

Like we said earlier we have not received it.

Note: We asked you to cease communication from other branches to avoid duplicate of information in our database that will result to cancellation of prize.

Kindly send it to our fax number: 0044 870 068 1454

We await your urgent response.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

*****

I have been contacted by the agent and he said that he received the form. Ask your agent for the information. He seems to be doing all of the work here. I don't understand why you are asking for it when I already sent it to him. I'm sure he would give you a copy even though you are an underling.

Thanks,

Debbie

*****

Like we said earlier we have not received it.

Note: We asked you to cease communication from other branches to avoid duplicate of information in our database that will result to cancellation of prize.

Kindly send it to our fax number: 0044 870 068 1454

We await your urgent response.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

*****

Did you get the form from your agent yet? He told me I must deal directly with him to get my winnings released to me. He told me that you have no authority at the Lottery Office and you are just a file boy. Thanks for all your help!

Debbie

*****

ATTN: Debbie,

We cannot get your form from your said agent. After due verification we noticed they are not recognized and are not part of The UK National Lottery. Like we said earlier kindly return the form that we sent you filled so we can confirm and payout your prize to you; if we did not receive your duly filled claim form before 24hours we will have to cancel your winning and mark your claim file as unclaimed. Once your prize has been marked unclaim you will not be allowed to make claim anymore, and your winning prize amount will be returned to the treasury account of The UK National Lottery.

We hope to have informed you sufficiently and we expect your urgent response.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

*****

You can't cancel my winnings when I have already sent you the form and paid for the Stamp Duty and Registration Fees, you freaking moron. I don't know what information you have, but the agent's name and contact was on the email that you sent me with my winning numbers, and now you can't recognize the agent? How incompetent are you?

Debbie

*****

ATTN: Debbie,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your email.

We will advise you to watch your tongue; you cannot put your blame on us for payment you have made to someone operating with our names.

We have asked you before to cease communication with them which you refused, now you have made payment to them. We will try and help you resolve it but you have to help us in order to do so.

Firstly, provide us with the names and email addresses you have been communicating with (their details including tel/fax numbers); amount of money paid to them and documents including your duly filled claim form.

We hope to have informed you sufficiently and we expect your swift response.

Regards,
Mr. Harrington

GET LOST AND GET YOUR FUCKING SELF A FUCKING BLOWJOB DICKHEAD!!!!!!!!!! hahahahahahhh

WOOOOOOOOOO!

*****

LOL – Did you finally figure out that after all this time I was fucking with you? It took you a while – most 419 scammers I make fun of figure it out a lot faster than you, you freaking moron. I liked how you tried to take one of your brethren’s scam with that other letter I sent you. Yes, that is correct – I won the Internet Email Lottery already 4 times this week. You are such an idiot – try getting a job and then you won’t have to beg for money from innocent people on the internet.

What I know about 419 Scammers...

- 1) Their spelling and command of the English language is terrible, like yours.
- 2) They always want you to use Western Union or Moneygram - no respectable bank or business uses this except for you.
- 3) They are always stupid, smelly, beggars from that cesspool of a continent Africa, like you are.

- 4) They pose as lawyers, bankers, and even Directors with the United Nations, like you.
- 5) They quote God and religion alot, even know they are going to Hell, like you are.
- 6) They claim to be getting back at the "white man" for injustices done to them, but the truth is that they will steal from anyone of any race, religion, creed, and color, like you would.
- 7) They often have sex with goats, monkeys, and their own parents, like you do.
- 8) They are the lowest form of life on the planet and have the intelligence of a 5-year old retarded child, like you do.
- 9) They strongly resemble gorillas but they smell even worse, like you do.
- 10) They are rooted in evil - everything bad in this world comes from Africa - AIDS, crime, war, disease, poverty, hunger, savages - all from Africa. True, we in the USA have our share of these problems too, but they all come from the savages that our forefathers unfortunately brought to this great nation.

*****

I email this bastard a few more times but he won't respond to me anymore. I wanted to get a few more of his well thought out insults!
