

Murphy's Law

This was a scammer that I mistook for someone else. Another scammer I was chatting with had a name real similar to this fool's name. When he first contacted me, I thought it was the other one, who I was already in the process of cursing out. Oops, my bad! I guess, technically I don't really know if this guy is a scammer or not. I am assuming that since he tells me his name is Murphy, when it is really Adeyemiolawoye, or some combination of this, that he is a scammer.
