

Night Court

This idiot made the mistake of telling me I was the heir to this dead guy, instead of just posing as Next-of-Kin. But even so, he writes "proposal" in the subject line of the emails suggesting that he is proposing some deal for me, not that I am the inheritor. He is getting all mixed up!

Dear Beneficiary,

We want to acknowledge the receipt of your email to this chamber and also want you to know you have absolute right to reject this offer as much as you have the right to accept it as well. If you wish to turn it down then let me know so I can send you a rejection form to fill and revert back to this office as I am not at liberty to question late Engr David Rollins choice of making you a benefactor of his funds.

We are a limited liability partnership registered with the CMS Cameron McKenna LLP in England and Wales and MUST carry out our duties as directed by my Late client {Engr.David Rollins}.I know you will like to know why he choose you but these are answers I cannot help you with and can imagine that Late Engr.David Rollins must have known that you will put the money to good use for the less privileged of which he was aware that you can achieve, that is why he selected you.

Also, understand that I don't know you neither have I met you before, but my contacting you is based on the recommendation of Late Engr.David Rollins. Find in attachment an AFFIDAVIT FORM IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION, you are advised to fill out the form and return back to us within the next 24hrs, before a Certificate of Deposit issued by the Security Deposit Bank to Late Engr.David Rollins when the funds were deposited by him will then be forwarded to you. This will give you the legal backing to receiving these funds without having any problems or whatsoever when you contact the Security Deposit Bank for proper claims.

Be further informed that these funds will be released to charity organization as unclaimed if you don't return the AFFIDAVIT FORM IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION soonest as this will serve as proper identification. I have never met you before like I said and to be able to carry out our duties effectively, we must be convinced that you are who the testament says you are.

We sincerely hope that the above requirement be sent to us sooner than later for us to proceed with the documentation. Please note that we cannot send any more documents to you until we are fully convinced that we have the true beneficiary.

Note that we have a period of (10) working day to conclude this matter.
I wait your early response to move ahead.

Yours in Service,
Ruthford and Moore.

Could I possibly see a copy of the Will? I am just wondering if you really have the right person. I'm sure there are hundreds of people named "Thomas Payne" in the United States – how do you know that you have the right one? Is there an address or possibly my middle name in the Will? Did you just try to find anyone named Thomas Payne to fit the bill?

Thomas

I read the Will; there is no mention of any middle name or address that would uniquely identify me as the beneficiary to this man’s money. What nationality was this man and where did he die? Where did he live?

Please let me know,

Thomas

(He sent me a copy of the Will – the funny this is that there is no mention of my email address in the Will, of course, and yet he contacted me by email and knows that I am the right Thomas Payne?).

We received your email, like i said before i have not met you before neither do i know about you. I was only given your name and contact email to inform you of the directives given to me by my late client. I have tried my best to reach you on several occasions and i have been unable to establish a contact. I and my supporting attorney have prepared all the paper works for the release of the funds, other confidential information will be passed to you in due course.

David Rollins was an British Business man who spent most of his life in United States. He had business interests in Egypt, USA and Britain. He died a very painful death and being so close to him, i was directed and mandated to execute his last will and wishes.

I hope you understand the circumstances surrounding my contact with you.

Best Wishes

Ruthford and Moore

So this will be taken care of through the British Probate system?

Thomas

Yes the British Probate system will take care of all proceedings. Do follow the instructions we have given so we proceed immediately.

Ruthford and Moore

(Big mistake idiot – now it’s in the hands of Probate and all your modalities are out the window...).

OK, great. Do you have any idea when the court will get a hold of me, or should I contact them? I’m sure they don’t have my address or phone number because it wasn’t in the Will. I’ll try calling them...

Thank you,

Thomas Payne

We sent you an email to contact the Bank where the funds have been laying for the past 5 years. I will advice you send them an email or give them a call for further discussions. They will be in contact with us as well and all paper works will be concluded on your behalf.

Ruthford and Moore.

(He is trying to turn it over to the bank scammer, but it should be in Probate’s hand now...).

I saw that and really didn’t understand it. This is something that will be handled by Probate, correct? Why would it be my responsibility to contact the bank – the funds will be seized and placed in escrow. The bank has to deal with the Probate Department, not us, right?

Thomas

I have not gotten any information from you today, did you talk to the financial institution?

Ruthford and Moore

Why would I have to contact the bank, moron? This is all in the hands of the Probate Court.

Thomas

You need to contact the Bank where the funds have been laying for the past 5 years. I will advice you send them an email or give them a call for further discussions. The money cannot be transferred to your account until this is done.

Ruthford and Moore.

It doesn’t sound like you know how the Probate system works. Maybe I should find a new lawyer who is a little more knowledgeable on the subject. Why would you think it is my responsibility to run around trying to get this money released? That’s what Probate is for. How long have you been a lawyer? Are you new at this?

Thomas

How can you get this money by not talking to the bank? We must urgent to get this money transferred to your account because in 5 days that bank will sieze the money and it will be held in their treasury.

Ruthford and Moore.

What do you mean, you complete and utter moron??? The bank can't seize money in Escrow from the Probate Dept. You have to be the dumbest lawyer on Earth. I will call the Court tomorrow to find out what the hold up is. I don't know why you think that I have to contact the bank – that is the court's job, not mine. Remind me never to hire you in the future unless I need my car washed or my butt scratched. I'll call the court tomorrow, ok moron.

Thanks,

Thomas

Needless to say, that was the last of him...
