

ObamaCare

This was an idiot "army guy" who tried a new approach. He wanted me to help him send money to his sick mother (mum) by logging into a fake bank website. Of course, he couldn't do it himself for some reason and I am sure some unexpected charges would have come up that he would have begged me to cover for him to save his poor, dying mother...lol.

He logs out. I still see him online all the time – just waiting until he contacts me again for some reason – I am sure he will...lol.
