

Pistol Whipped

This was a very short bait because the Charity who was going to give me millions of dollars to disburse had their email accounts shut down, and when I was questioning the FBI about it, the FBI's email account was shut down as well. I didn't realize AOL wielded that kind of power...

What do you mean "I am next of kin", you complete and utter moron? I have no idea who this person is and I am sure she is not a relative of mine. Please explain this if it is possible.

James

I love calling the FBI morons! In the email they re-sent below – the FBI Seals, alongside the picture of John Pistole, were links. The links traced back to Google/Search Results/Images/FBI. So, I guess this means that when the Deputy Director of the FBI writes an Official email, he has to do a Google Search to embed the FBI Seal into his email! LOL...

Attn: -

We, the federal bureau of investigation (FBI) recently had a meeting with the Co-founder of Ellen Charity Home in the person of Mr. Brian Mayer and his publicist Mrs. Miriam Benson along side some officials from the organization regarding the death of Mr. Davis Ruben, the husband to Mrs. Ellen Doris Ruben who is resting in the bosom of the lord due to a contracted illness (cancer of the lungs). Until his death Mrs. Ellen Doris Ruben and her husband had set up another Charity Organization in Cairo, Egypt which was commissioned May, 2002.

In addendum, also be informed that after a random deep pick, you have been certified by our global authorities to become a beneficiary to receive the sum of 10,000,000.00 (Ten Million Dollars) allocated to you from Ellen Charity Home, Egypt. We were made to understand that your file has been held in a base depending on when you personally come for the claim, we have also been informed about some con artist trying to use every possible measure to claim your inheritance without your notice as you already should be aware of the situation. We were also made to understand that a lady by name Mrs. Lisa McGregor from Chicago already contacted Natwest Bank Egypt and also presented all necessary documents evidencing your claim purported to have been signed personally by you prior to the release of your benefit valued at about us$10,000,000.00 (ten million dollars) but Natwest Bank Egypt did the wise thing by insisting on hearing from you personally before they go ahead on wiring your fund to the bank information which was forwarded to them by the above named lady. For this reason we were contacted as to assist the bank in making their investigations.

If you are dealing with any person or office claiming to be from us, you must desist from further communications. You are further advised to stop further contact with them in your best interest and contact immediately the real office of Ellen Charity Home Egypt only with the below information's accordingly:

I did try to contact them at the email address you sent me and it came back undelivered. I contacted the ISP and they said that those email accounts were shut down due to fraudulent activity. What is the meaning of this???

James

*****

We ask them to contact you because we need to ask for there permission.

*****

So why was their email shut down for fraudulent activities???

James

*****

John.

So how am I supposed to contact them, you freaking dipshit? If you were aware that their email accounts were shut down for fraud, then you could have given me the new contact information, you idiot. Is there any way I could speak with someone at the FBI that is a little smarter? This is like dealing with a third grader...

James

My last email did not bounce, but I didn't hear anything for days. When I went to see what the hold up was, the FBI's email address was shut down too. They must hate when that happens!
