

Pretty In Pink

I may be being messed with. In the past two weeks, I have received Instant Messages from six or seven different Army Scammers all with the same modality – 46 years old, from Dallas, Texas, in the army, stationed in Afghanistan. A few of these I blew off saying they were too old for Debbie (32). But the scambait didn't always end there. This was one of the latest ones, and I am sure it is one of the earlier ones that I blew off. Watch and read how this one progresses.
