

Thin Blood

This is aptly titled because in this case, "Blood is not thicker than water". My whole goal here was to get her to deny her brother which she did do after I told her to go find someone else because I would not work with criminals. Notice how many times she threatens me about insulting her brother, yet wants me to help her...

Was this email meant for me? I don't understand why you are searching for some random person on the internet to help you. If your brother is a criminal, do we really want him to get out of prison? Did he steal this money?

Thomas

Tnanks for your mail , on what you said here my elder brother is not a criminal and needs to be out from the prison but he was put into the prison because he and others wanted to over throw the bad government in philippine and at that time he was a senator and never knew that the he is been searched to get hold of him, am not making any random search but i got your email from your country chamber of comcece here in pilippine before writing this letter to you to help me in receiving the money to my elder brother since the government of philippine has confiscated all his bank account in philippine and he has asked me to get this money he has in a bank in ivory coast transfered our before the government of philippine knows about the money in ivory coast .

The money is deposited by my elder brother senator Antonio Fuentes Trillanes and am now discussing with the bank directors in regards to the release of the money and also presenting the documents letters from my elder brother senator Antonio Fuentes Trillanes and papers to prove that my elder brother whom is in prison now has requested that the money is been released to whom ever i present to the bank as the business partner .

I will have these informations sent to the bank on your behalf and once the bank receives it the bank will contact you and you also will have to diusscuss with the bank of the best way to handle the transfer of the money to you , I will like to have a copy of your ID for my identification and i will like to inform you that we are doing this transaction on mutual trust, believing that you will never in life disappoint me in future once you receive this money .

I would rather not help your felonious, degenerate brother in this ordeal. I will help you on the condition that the money does not get into your criminal brother's hands. I'm sure the government had good reason to throw him in prison, so I will not debate it, nor will I assist in the release of a criminal by bribing guards and prison officials. I will help if I have your word that he will not be released from prison.

Thomas

Ma. Lailani Trillanes

*****

How exactly did I insult you??? My refusal to work with your pathetic, felonious brother has no bearing on you. Why would you introduce me to your bank as your criminal brother's business partner after one email? I didn't even agree to help you yet, nor did I give you any information about me yet. I can see that common sense isn't your strong suit. Nor intelligence. If you want me to continue with this business transaction, then I must have your pledge that your inmate brother will not be involved in any way in this deal. Do I have your pledge?

Once I receive your honest pledge, I will send you whatever information you require.

Let me know,

Thomas

I received your mail and want to tell you that i really do not understand what you are saying for me elder brother is not a criminal and never you should mention this to me again in your life and if you think that you have to insult me and myfamily because i made a proposal to you then you should stay away for this has to be the last time you say such a thing to me .

Do you know his postion in my country philippine and do you know what caused his problem or you think you have to open up your mount to say anything that comes out from it , never you do say such a thing again because i can see that you are not a serious person and would prefer to deal with somebody who knows what life is with money .

*****

You said for yourself that he is in jail and a criminal. I just wanted to make it clear that I didn't want your felonious brother involved with this transaction in any way. I know what life is like with money - I have plenty of money - I don't need to beg random people on the internet for it.

*****

Dear Thomas ,

Criminals are in prison, and your brother is in prison, so he is a criminal.
I don't know why you are dwelling on this point..

If you want me to help you, I must have your word that your moronic brother will not be involved.

Thomas

*****

Dear Thomas ,

Your insult is enough , please since you have insulted me enough and my elder brother that is enough of you , you should indicate your interest in this business for i can never accept to what you request from me and can never deny my brother for he is the only thing that i have after our parents death since we are only two .

I have arrived from philippine down here in ivory coast to sort out the transfer processes of the money and having the money transfered to you and am only asking you to receive this money in your account and having the money invested in a good business of your choice in your country .

waiting to hear from you

Thanks,
Regards ,

Ma. Lailani Trillanes

*****

I told you I was interested in this deal, but not if your convict brother is involved. If you can't continue without him, then you need to find someone else. If you choose to deny your brother then I will proceed. But, as I said, I will not involve myself with low-born, rotten criminals so if you can't honor my request then go find someone else to help your criminal family.

Thomas

This is still active as of 7/15/2009, but I did what I wanted to do – now I will just insult her and her pathetic family a little more...
